Abstract

ARTICLE I NAME

The name of this organization shall be the Tennessee Association for Family and Community Education. TAFCE when used hereafter shall be defined to mean the Tennessee Association for Family and Community Education.

ARTICLE II OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the Tennessee Association for Family & Community Education shall be:
A. to bind together the FCE Clubs of the state in educational programs and activities that promote higher standards of family living, homemaking and citizenship responsibility;
B. to further strengthen, develop, coordinate, and extend adult education in family and consumer sciences to improve the quality of living in cooperation with the University of Tennessee Extension, USDA, and local county government;
C. to provide opportunity for TAFCE members cooperating in Extension Family & Consumer Sciences educational programs to pool their judgment and experiences for the improvement of Home and community life;
D. to offer a means by which TAFCE members, in cooperation with University of Tennessee Extension may interpret and promote educational and citizenship programs of state, national, and international importance in the preservation of the American home and provide opportunities for better understanding throughout the world;
E. to promote family strengths and leadership development.

ARTICLE III MEMBERSHIP

Section I. Membership
A. The membership of TAFCE shall be composed of the Tennessee FCE Clubs. TAFCE does not discriminate by sex, race, color, age, handicap, religion, National origin or veteran status.
B. Members of any FCE Club in Tennessee shall subscribe to these bylaws and pay membership dues including local, county, region, and state. Members also may subscribe to national dues.
C. Honorary membership may be granted to any person who has made an outstanding contribution to the TAFCE program, and FCE County Council. A Region Council or State Board member may recommend honorary members. The TAFCE State Board must approve them. No dues shall be required. Honorary members are ineligible to vote.

ARTICLE IV OFFICERS, ELECTIONS AND DUTIES

Section I. Officers

The officers of the association shall be a President, a President-elect, Vice President for Programs, Vice President for Public Policy, Secretary, and Treasurer.

Section II. Election

A. The election and installation of President, Vice President for Public Policy, and Treasurer shall be at the annual meeting in the even years. These officers will assume their duties on January 1 st following their election and installation.
B. The election for the President-elect, Vice President for Programs and Secretary shall be at the annual meeting in the odd years. These officers will assume their duties on January 1st following their election and installation.
C. The President-elect shall be elected following a rotation plan. The office of the President-elect of TAFCE will rotate by regions beginning with Eastern in 2020, followed by Western and Central Regions, and continue in this rotation plan. Other officers will not rotate. All officers will serve a two (2) year term until their successors are elected and installed, with the exception of the President-elect who will serve a one (1) year term. In the event that a region cannot provide a candidate for President-elect, the next region in rotation would become eligible to furnish a candidate for this office. The deadline for an eligible region to relinquish the office of President-elect shall be January 1st of the election year. In the event a region has more than one (1) candidate for President-elect, each candidate will be submitted to the TAFCE nominating committee.
D. Services of a professionally trained non-member Parliamentarian will be utilized for the annual business meeting.
E. No officer may be elected to the same office for a second term consecutively. A candidate shall have completed any term of office by January 1 of the year following election at State FCE Conference.
F. A nominating committee consisting of the Vice President for Programs plus the three (3) Region presidents shall make nominations. The Vice President for Programs shall serve as chairman. All candidates for office must be a member in good standing of TAFCE before they are nominated. All candidates for office must give consent in writing to serve if elected.
G. Qualifications must reach the nominating committee by August $1^{\text {st }}$. The nominating committee will determine eligibility.
H. All nominees must be present for the election (with the exception of an extreme emergency). The nominating committee may present two (2) or more names for each office to be filled, unless there is only one (1) candidate.
I. The Vice President for Programs must give the qualifications for all persons being nominated for offices to the Secretary for filing prior to the business session at which the election will be held.
J. If no nominations are received for a specific office by the August $1^{\text {st }}$ deadline, a voting delegate may make nominations for the office at the annual meeting. The voting delegate must submit the candidate's written consent to serve and written certifications by their Region Board that the candidate is qualified to serve in the position for which the member is being nominated. If nominations are made from the floor, the candidate's qualifications and written consent to serve must be presented to the nominating committee chairman or appointee, by the person making the nomination prior to the opening of the meeting at which time the election occurs.
K. Election shall be by written ballot at the annual meeting unless there is only one candidate for the office. A majority vote of those members eligible to vote is required for election to an office. Each region shall appoint a non-voting TAFCE delegate to count ballots. Those appointed to count ballots cannot be one of the candidates for office.
L. If a majority vote is not reached after two (2) ballots are cast, all names shall be deleted except the two who receive the largest number of votes on the second ballot. Voting continues until candidate receives a majority.
M. Other officers and committee chairmen necessary for TAFCE shall be appointed by the President and approved by the State Board. If the appointed officer, committee chairman or members fail to attend meetings and fulfill the duties of the office without adequate reason, the president shall appoint a successor for the specific vacancy.
N . If an officer resigns or cannot serve out the term of office, the TAFCE State Board will appoint a TAFCE member to serve out the term.
O. No person may hold more than one (1) office, either elected or appointed, at the state level.
P. All officers must submit to their successor all materials pertinent to procedures, duties, and responsibilities of that office.
Q. A candidate shall be nominated for only one office in the same election. No elected state officer may serve as an elected Region or National officer while serving as a state officer.
R. The President shall instruct the tellers to report the number of votes cast for individual candidates to the President for declaration of the winner, to the Secretary for inclusion in the official records of TAFCE, and to the general assembly upon request.
S. If no nominations for an office are received, the TAFCE President, with approval of the TAFCE Board, shall appoint a member to fill the office.

Section III. Qualifications

ARTICLE VII MEETINGS

Section I. Annual Meetings

The annual meeting shall be held between November $1^{\text {st }}$ and November $30^{\text {th }}$ each year at a place designated by the Board. Any necessary deviation must have two-thirds (2/3) approval of the TAFCE Board at least twelve (12) months prior to the annual meeting.

Section II. Special Meetings

A special meeting of the members may be called at any time by the President or by a majority of the Board. The President shall call a special meeting within sixty (60) days after receipt of a written request signed by ten (10) percent of the members in good standing.

Section III. Voting Delegates

The voting delegates shall be the TAFCE State Board and the Presidents of the TAFCE County Councils. If the County Council President cannot serve as the voting delegate, the county may appoint an alternate. The State Treasurer, State Secretary, the Host Region Treasurer and the Credentials Committee must verify all voting delegates.

If a county does not have a member present at the annual meeting, they will NOT have a vote.

Section IV. Notice of Meetings
The Secretary shall mail printed notice of the time and place of any meeting of the membership to the TAFCE County Council Presidents at least thirty (30) days prior to the meeting. Each president shall, in turn, notify the county membership. The notice of a special meeting shall also state the purpose of such meeting; no other business may be transacted.

Section V. Quorum
Ten (10) percent of the voting delegates shall constitute a quorum at any meeting.

ARTICLE VIII DUES & FINANCES

Section I. Dues
A. The Finance Committee will prepare a budget based on the annual dues for each member as set by the State Board. The TAFCE Treasurer must receive dues for the coming year by November 1.
B. Dues are subject to change by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the delegates at any annual or special meeting.

Section II. Reimbursement

Expenses incurred by officers and education committee members in the pursuance of the office shall be paid by the treasurer within the limits of the budget upon receipt of an itemized bill, and in accordance with the provisions of Article IV, Section IV., F. 3.
